

July 2010

Cambridge ESOL's Online Community for English Teachers

Thousands of teachers access free lesson plans, games and other classroom resources thanks to the Cambridge ESOL Teacher Support website. Features include an interactive resources area containing worksheets, an advice section offering tips and strategies for every Cambridge ESOL exam, discussion forums and a searchable events section. Join today!

Free Seminars organised by AACI

On August 7, AACI will be delivering the following seminars free of charge:

9:30 – 11:00 - B1 Speaking: How to enhance skills?

11:30 – 13:00 Speaking at B2

14:00 – 15:30 How can TKT help me become a better teacher?

For more information and details on registration please visit <http://aaciopencentre.blogspot.com>

Did you know...

that Cambridge ESOL provides a results verification service to validate candidates' Cambridge ESOL examination results quickly and securely?

Universities, schools and HR departments can use this free service once they have been given permission to verify a result by the certificate holder. This new service will help all these organisations to enhance the security of their entry level and recruitment processes.

More organisations say 'yes' to Cambridge

In the first half of 2010 over 600 new names joined the list of organisations that recognise Cambridge ESOL exams. The latest adoptions include: FIAT Group Automobiles, Italy; Air France; Unilever, Mexico; Ogilvy & Mather, China; People's Institute of Management and Research, India plus many, many more!

They join the 10,000 organisations around the world that recognise Cambridge ESOL exams as proof of language ability for immigration, entrance to higher education and enhanced career prospects

CUP English in Mind Competition!

Cambridge University Press has recently launched the English in Mind Competition.

Engaging topic presentation is undoubtedly a key factor when trying to succeed in teaching teenagers. It is time to prove your point!

How can you participate? Describe how certain EIM topic/text has proven to engage and motivate your students in a 500-word essay.

Click here to learn more about this competition and the prizes available!

Happy Winter
Holidays!!!

