

September
15th
Thursday
1pm to 3pm

Professional English Workshop: Law

An introduction to Contract Law and the Language of Contracts

- The main elements of contract formation
- Analysis of leading cases
- The typical structure of a commercial contract: boiler plate or standardized clauses
- Some elements of contract drafting
- What are the possible tasks a lawyer may be involved in when dealing with contracts?

20% off
for InEnglish
students and Amcham
members.

Speaker:
Cecilia Irrazábal

Cecilia A. Irrazábal, Certified Legal Translator (UCA). Works as free-lance translator specialized in legal texts, and as Adjunct Lecturer in Legal Translation (UCA) and Legal Translation & Terminology (UCAECE Mar del Plata). Has been teaching English for Law Students and Lawyers for the last ten years. She currently works as Legal English Instructor at UCA's Cultural Centre, and at 'Escuela de Posgrado del Colegio Público de Abogados de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires'. She trains students to sit for ILEC (Cambridge ESOL Legal English Certificate), and teaches Legal English in companies and law firms. Delivered a workshop on how to teach Legal English in the XII National Congress of Teachers and Students of English and has been invited to contribute with practical tips on teaching Legal English to the Herald Education Supplement. Has delivered workshops for teachers and translators, to help them teach Legal English and also has given presentations on how to convert to Legal English as part of the Teacher Training Support of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. Has started to work as Trainer with 'Colegio de Trad. Públicos de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires', training colleagues to help them teach lawyers. Has also worked as External Tutor in the subject Common Law Reasoning and Institutions, as part of the LLB course of the University of London, through 'Asociación Internacional de Estudios'.

Venue: Universidad de Palermo, Graduate School of Business, Madero 942 8° piso (edificio Catalinas) / Fee: $ 140 + IVA

With the support of

More info / Enrolment: training@inenglish.com.ar