

Recognition

Higher/Further Education

USA

International applicants to universities and colleges in the United States often have to demonstrate their English language skills. They have to be able to prove that they have the necessary skills to compete in academic courses and to communicate effectively in English in a variety of situations.

The International English Language Testing System (IELTS), (jointly managed by Cambridge ESOL, British Council, and IDP Education Australia), and the Cambridge ESOL Certificate in Advanced English (CAE) and Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE) can be used to demonstrate these skills. They are recognised and accepted by top universities, colleges, and institutions of higher learning worldwide as evidence that a prospective student has the necessary level of English proficiency for admissions to undergraduate and graduate studies.

The list below shows the minimum grades/scores required by each institution in the USA in order to satisfy their English language requirement for undergraduate and graduate courses. Visit www.cambridgeesol.org/recognition/search.php to search the recognition database online.

You should note that requirements for particular courses may vary, and you should always discuss your application with the institution of your choice directly.

CAE and CPE pass grades are A-C. IELTS scores are reported in nine bands, from band 1 (Non-User) to band 9 (Expert User).

Institutions listed as undergraduate include non-matriculated programs (ESL, Certificate, Diploma, Extension), non-Carnegie classified schools and programs (Associate, Bachelor's, Master's, Specialized, Certificate or Diploma) and non-Carnegie classified culinary programs and schools (Associate, Specialized, Certificate/Diploma).
