Cambridge ESOL Examination Centre Cartagena

Due to increased demand for our extremely popular suite of English language examinations, Cambridge ESOL, leader in international language assessment, invites tenders from language academies and other educational organisations to set up and operate a new Cambridge ESOL Examination centre based in the city of Cartagena, Murcia. The successful organisation will have a proven track record of English language teaching (ELT) and be a successful language academy employing professional teachers of English who already prepare candidates for Cambridge ESOL exams and have an appropriate management structure, as a suitable person from the organisation will be named Centre Exams Manager.

To receive an information pack and application form, please write to Simon Ferdinand, ESOL Sales Manager for Spain and Portugal at:
ferdinand.s@cambridgeesolspain.org by the 5th of February.

Applications should be made by the 12th of February and selection interviews will take place in Cartagena at the end of the month.

Cambridge ESOL is part of Cambridge Assessment, a department of the University of Cambridge in the United Kingdom.
