

For questions 76-80, match the ways a teacher gave feedback on students' written work with the aims listed A-F.

Mark the correct letter (A-F) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Feedback on written work

- 76 The teacher marked students' writing using a correction code. Then she gave them time in the lesson to improve their work while she monitored.
- 77 The teacher gave an overall grade for letters students had written for homework. He also gave them an example letter to look at.
- 78 The teacher used a system of smiling and sad faces to give students feedback on their written work.
- 79 The teacher noted mistakes from students' written work and used these to prepare a language quiz, which students did in teams.
- 80 The teacher only commented on the content of stories that students had written.

Aims

- A to focus on common language mistakes that many students made in their writing
- B to inform students of their general progress in writing at the end of term
- C to encourage students to learn to edit their own work
- D to encourage students' creativity and to create a positive attitude to writing
- E to provide students with a model for similar written work in the future
- F to inform primary age students about their progress in a fun way
